TELEGRAPHERS ARE NOT . SATISFIED WITH RAISE SITUATION AGAIN REACHES

CRITICAL STAGE. Men May Quit Jobs Next Week-Explanation Made

Regarding Wages. Not at all pleased with the wage increase granted by Secretary Mc-Adoo, local railroad telegraphers are again on the verge of quitting their jobs. They will await the receipt of the official bulletin before making a move. General chairmen meet the latter part of this week to discuss the situation and expect at that time to arrive at a decision as to the to arrive at a decision as to the course of action of the men. In the event a walk-out is agreed on it will not take place until early next week. It is pointed out that the outlook is not bright and that the men are in favor of stopping work in an endeavor to gain what they are striving for.

WALK.

The demands of the telegraphers call for a 40 per cent, increase on the present rate of pay and they are not willing that the dispatchers be left out of the schedule, as has be left out of the schedule, as has been suggested in Secretary Mc-Adoo's proposal. They will hold out that their demands be granted as a whole. It is pointed out that the increase amounced by Secretary McAdoo does not apply to the present salary but to the salary received before general order No. 27 went into effect; hence the raise would only average about 2 cents an hour. from one to two years learning to make himself competent to fill a position of trust. The public does not understand these things and I want them to know just why we are asking for more money. We are all loaded down with liberty bonds, war savings stamps and Red Cross donations.
